Lease Agreement

A lease agreement must be filed with the International Purebred Appaloosa Association in order for a lease to be recognized for purposes of breeding and competing. In case of sale of the leased horse to the lessee, the lease termination date will be recorded as the date of ownership transfer. In case of sale of the leased horse to another party, a lease termination form must be submitted, terminating the lease prior to the transfer of ownership to the other party. Only this lease agreement and the appropriate fee need to be submitted to IPAA; the original registration certificate does not need to be submitted. Please print in ink or type.
